Author Series

Allison Gruber

While sharing selections from You're Not Edith and from her forthcoming collection, Transference, Gruber will discuss craft, navigating the hazy line between memory and “fact”, and the role of “identity politics” in literature.

Tuesday, March 21st, 7:00-8:00

Allison Gruber is an essayist and an educator whose first book, You're Not Edith, received praise from Booklist, Publishers Weekly, NewPages, and was a finalist for a Lambda Literary Award. Her work has appeared in The Huffington Post, Pithead Chapel, The Hairpin, Foliate Oak, The Literary Review, and Gravel Magazine, among many others.

Due to subject matter, this event may not be suitable for people under the age of fourteen.
