Animal Stories: Grand Canyon National Park

Tuesday, August 15th, 6:00-7:00pm

Everyone loves animal stories, and most people have a few of their own. Nancy Rivest Green shares her experiences living in Grand Canyon National Park and traveling to the world's wildest places. Accompanying the literary storytelling is scientific research to enhance the understanding of each animal.

Nancy Rivest Green is an author and award-winning educator. Her debut novel, On the Brink of Shards, was shortlisted for the Arizona Author Association's Novel of the Year. Her recent book, Stalking the Wild Dragonfly, explores her experience living and teaching in Grand Canyon National Park.
