

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK APRIL 8-14, 2018

Join us
on Thursday

- WHAT: Poster Session & Technology Demonstrations
WHY: To engage the general public and to spotlight library services.
WHEN: Thursday April 12th – between 10:00am and 4:00pm
WHERE: The downtown library
WHO: Everyone!

- 10:00am There will be a “poster session” in the library that will run until 4pm. These posters will feature library services and technologies. Library staff will be on hand to engage the public and answer questions.
- 11:00am RFID Demonstration: Library staff will demonstrate library RFID Technologies, as well as other library technology enhancements – like the Language Facets, AR Levels, and StackMap in the online library catalog. Duration 30-45 minutes.
- 1:00pm Digital Archive Demonstration: Library staff will demonstrate recent archival digitization projects – such as the Flagstaff Pow Wow and Flagstaff Water History online resources. Duration 30-45 minutes.
- 3:00pm E-Book Demonstration: Library staff will demonstrate the library E-Book collections, as well as other e-resources – like Zinio online magazines and Indie Flix. Duration 30-45 minutes.

LIBRARIES LEAD NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK 2018